PURPOSE

The Employer and the Union do not condone discrimination and/or harassment in the workplace and shall make every reasonable effort to maintain a work environment, which is supportive of productivity and the personal goals, dignity and self-esteem of every Employee. The purpose of this Article is to express the commitment of the Employer and the Union to maintain a healthy work environment, which is free of discrimination and/or harassment and to deal co-operatively, quickly and effectively with any incident of discrimination or harassment.
- 28.02 The Employer has legislated obligations with respect to harassment and/or discrimination. Any changes or revisions to the Employer's Discrimination and Sexual and Personal Harassment Policy ("Policy") and Procedure shall be reviewed with the Union prior to implementation. In the event of any inconsistencies between the Policy and the Collective Agreement, the Collective Agreement shall prevail.
- 28.03 The Employer shall provide all Employees with a copy of the Policy and shall post the Policy on all general bulletin boards. There shall also be ongoing training for Managers, Supervisors and Employees.

DEFINITIONS

DISCRIMINATION

- 28.04 Discrimination is any distinction based upon one of the Protected Grounds, or convictions for which a pardon has been granted, which negatively impacts an Employee who is a member of the protected group (whether by imposing burdens, obligations, or disadvantages not imposed upon others or limiting opportunities, benefits, or advantages available to others). Discrimination shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with any defenses available under the law.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- 28.05 Sexual harassment in the workplace is defined as any verbal remark or physical contact of a sexual nature, including unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favours, which threatens job security, affects work opportunities, or negatively impacts on the working conditions or employment atmosphere in which any Employee works. Sexual harassment can occur between people of differing authority or between people of similar authority. Sexual harassment can be directed at an individual or at a group. For a more detailed description of sexual harassment, refer to the Policy.

PERSONAL HARASSMENT

28.06 Personal harassment in the workplace can be defined as any unwanted, unsolicited, offensive behaviour, comments or displays, either explicitly or implicitly, that is directed at any Employee, customer, or supplier of the Employer that causes or is reasonably likely to cause offense to or humiliation to any Employee, customer, or supplier or cause interference with an Employee's performance. Personal harassment can occur between people of differing authority or between people of similar authority.

Personal harassment includes abuse of authority that undermines performance or a career and, in some cases, may constitute a threat to the health and safety of the Employee. Abuse of authority means taking advantage of a position of authority to exploit, compromise, or mistreat others. Personal harassment may include intimidation, threats, blackmail, coercion, yelling, belittling an Employee or an Employee's work, humiliating an Employee in front of others, conspiring with others to mistreat the Employee, inappropriately punishing Employees, unjustifiably withholding information an Employee needs to perform their work, and demanding subordinates take on personal errands. Personal harassment does not include actions occasioned through exercising the Employer's managerial/supervisory rights and responsibilities in good faith. For a more detailed description of personal harassment, refer to the Policy.

CONSULTATION/PROCEDURE

28.07 The Employer and the Union are committed to providing a procedure for Employees to report incidents of improper treatment, discrimination or harassment regardless of whether they involve a co-worker, supervisor, manager, or any other person.

28.08 The parties recognize that some Employees may find it difficult to come forward with a complaint of improper treatment, discrimination or harassment and may wish such matters to remain confidential.

28.09 To protect the interests of the complainant, the person complained against, and others who report such incidents, all have an obligation to maintain confidentiality throughout the investigative process.

28.10 Employees are to report incidents of improper treatment, discrimination or harassment in a timely manner.

28.11 If they feel comfortable doing so, Employees are encouraged to informally report incidents of improper treatment, discrimination, or harassment in the following ways:

- a. Discuss their concerns with the person who is allegedly committing the offensive act. Making the other person aware he or she is creating discomfort in the work environment may be enough to resolve the situation.
- b. If Employees are not comfortable confronting the other person or have tried without effect, Employees may directly report their concerns to their supervisor, manager, Centre/Location or Head Office management, Human Resources Manager, Labour Relations Director, AUR or Union Executive.
- c. Employees do not have to choose one reporting method over any other. They should make the complaint in the manner which makes them feel most comfortable.

28.12 Employees also have the right to initiate a formal written complaint to the Employer or the Union Executive.

28.13 All Employees affected by or involved in this process shall have the right to be represented by the Union.

28.14 The Employer and the Union agree to share all information concerning the complaint. Employees shall be interviewed during working hours or shall be paid for interview time.

28.15 Once a decision has been reached as to the findings, the affected Employee(s) shall be notified of the findings by the way of written notification. In those circumstances the Employer deems necessary, the affected Employee(s), Union Executive and the Employer shall meet to review the findings.

NO REPRISALS

28.16 The Employer and the Union agree that no Employee who files a complaint in good faith, or testifies concerning another person's complaint, shall suffer any retaliation or reprisals.

28.17 As stated, the Employer and the Union do not condone discrimination, personal and/or sexual harassment. Therefore, any situation where an Employee knowingly makes a false verbal or written claim shall be subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

ARBITRATION

28.18 If within sixty (60) days the complaint is not resolved or any party is not in agreement with the Employer's decision, any party may file a grievance to be referred directly to Arbitration (Article 24) for resolution.

28.19 In addition to the presentation of the evidence, the Employer and the Union shall each present the arbitrator with their recommendations regarding the resolution of the matter.

ARTICLE #29 - EFFECTIVE DATE AND TERM

This Agreement shall become effective on October 3, 2013 and shall continue in effect until October 29, 2016 and automatically from year to year thereafter unless either party gives written notice of its desire to terminate the Agreement or to negotiate revisions thereof.

Such notice shall be given not less than sixty (60) and not more than one-hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the expiry date of this contract.

SCHEDULE "C" – PAY NOTES
WAGE DETERMINATION - INTERNAL

3. SAME LEVEL

Transfer - The hourly rate and the number of hours to the next increment remain the same if you are moving within the same Classification.

Different Classification - The hourly rate remains the same if the Classification you are going to, has the same maximum rate as the Classification you are coming from. The number of hours to the next increment and the class hours are the same.

4. HIGHER

If the 'personal' maximum rate is "higher" in the new classification then you get the next higher rate in that classification providing it is at least three percent (3%). The number of hours to the next increment shall be the amount applicable to that job grouping and the class hours is zero. At the time of the offer, if the Employee is within one hundred twenty (120) class hours of their next increment, then the increment is applied before the new salary is determined. The number of class hours at the time of offer is based on the hours up to the end of the week immediately preceding the date the offer is made.

The Employer may consider in certain circumstances an increase of greater than three percent (3%) when an internal candidate has recent relevant experience to warrant a higher rate of pay. Any such increase must be approved by the Employee Relations Director.

5. LOWER

If the "personal" maximum rate is "lower" in the new Classification, then your total Seniority hours are used to determine what level you shall start at, and the number of hours towards the next increment. The exception to this is a rejection on class trial period, in which case the Employee returns to their previous rate and the Hours Worked at the new level are credited to the previous level.

6. MOVING TO PRIOR CLASSIFICATION

Subject to passing class trial period, the highest rate of pay achieved when filling a temporary or permanent vacancy, or Temporary Position, shall be reinstated upon returning to a temporary or permanent vacancy, or Temporary Position in that Classification within twelve (12) months after leaving that Classification, unless the normal wage determination is greater.

7. WAGE DETERMINATION – EXTERNAL

New Employees shall normally start at the bottom level of the wage scale. Exceptions, at the discretion of the Employer include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. Re-hiring an Employee within ninety-two (92) days of termination clause 12.06.d (Seniority).
- b. Applicants with previous comparable experience may be started at a higher level with the authorization of the Employee Relations Director.
